

The Movie

Mr In Between is a terrifying love triangle. An original twist on a tale of divided loyalties, the perils of love and ultimate death. A haunting thriller set in a London at times beautiful and ugly, but always captivating. An edgy psychological drama that plays with the shadows and light of an underworld occupied by the fascinating and terrible. The story of an alienated and irredeemable man who finds love for the very first time.

Mr In Between is a film that will entertain, enthrall and shock in equal measures. It is a motion picture that is not afraid to engage and challenge its audience.

Atmospheric and charged with menace, Mr In-Between is the directing debut of award-winning Canadian cinematographer Paul Sarossy and showcases the startling prowess of this internationally acclaimed filmmaker.

The first-rate cast includes rising Welsh star Andrew Howard (as Jon), ably supported by Geraldine O'Rawe (as Cathy) and Andrew Tiernan (as Andy), alongside such well-known cinema faces as David Calder (as the Tattooed Man), Clive Russell (as Mr Michaelmas) and Saeed Jaffrey OBE (as Mr Basmati).

Mr In-Between is written by Peter Waddington, based on the novel by Neil Cross, published by Vintage/Random House. A tie-in edition of the novel will be published on the release of the movie.

Mr In-Between boasts a fabulous soundtrack, with songs by Nick Cave, David Bowie, Lou Reed, Goldfrapp, Ash, Dreadzone, Violet Indiana, Helen Shapiro, MAD LION, The Nextmen, Lotus Crown and Supersister. The soundtrack album to the film will be released on Morpheus Records.
